If you exceed these limitations, your account may be subject to a fee or be closed.

12. CONDITIONS OF EFT SERVICES

Ownership of Cards. Any card or other device which we supply to you is our property and must be returned to us, or to any person whom we authorize to act as our agent, or to any person who is authorized to honor the card, immediately according to instructions. The card may be repossessed at any time at our sole discretion without demand or notice. You cannot transfer your card to another person.

Honoring the Card. Neither we nor merchants authorized to honor the card will be responsible for the failure or refusal to honor the card or any other device we supply to you. If a merchant agrees to give you a refund or adjustment, you agree to accept a credit to your account in lieu of a cash refund.

Foreign Transactions – MasterCard. Purchases and cash withdrawals made in foreign currencies will be debited from your account in U.S. dollars. The exchange rate used to convert foreign currency transactions to U.S. dollars is either a government-mandated exchange rate or the wholesale exchange rate and is selected by MasterCard. The rate MasterCard uses for a particular transaction is the rate MasterCard selects from applicable currency on the day the transaction is processed. This rate may differ from the rate applicable on the date the transaction occurred or was posted to your account. A fee of up to 1% will be charged on all transactions completed in a foreign currency. All fees are calculated based on the transaction amount it is converted to U.S. dollars. The fees are charged except where excluded.

Security of Access Code. You may use one or more access codes with your electronic funds transfers. The access codes issued to you are for your security purposes. Any codes issued to you are confidential and should not be disclosed to third parties or recorded on or with your card. You are responsible for safekeeping your access codes. You agree not to disclose or otherwise make your access codes available to anyone not authorized to sign on your accounts. If you authorize anyone to use your access codes that authority shall continue until you specifically revoke such authority by notifying the Credit Union. You understand that any joint owner you authorize to use an access code may withdraw or transfer funds from any of your accounts. If you fail to maintain the security of these access codes and the Credit Union suffers a loss, we may terminate your EFT services immediately.

Joint Accounts. If any of your accounts accessed under this Agreement are joint accounts, all joint owners, including any authorized users, shall be bound by this Agreement and, alone and together, shall be responsible for all EFT transactions to or from any savings and checking or loan accounts as provided in this Agreement. Each joint owner, without the consent of any other account owner, may, and hereby is authorized by every other joint account owner to, make any transaction permitted under this Agreement. Each joint account owner is authorized to act for the other account owners, and the Credit Union may accept orders and instructions regarding any EFT transaction on any account from any joint account owner.

13. FEES AND CHARGES.

There are certain charges for electronic funds transfer services. From time to time, the charges may be changed. We will notify you of any changes as required by applicable law.

If you use an ATM that is not operated by us, you may be charged a fee by the ATM operator and by any national, regional, or local network used in processing the transaction. The ATM surcharge will be debited from your account if you elect to complete the transaction or continue with the balance inquiry.

Please refer to Schedule of Fees and Charges for additional information.

14. MEMBER LIABILITY.

You are responsible for all transactions you authorize using your EFT services under this Agreement. If you have funds on hold for a debit card transaction that, may take away from your available balance to clear another item resulting in an overdraft. The following example illustrates how this works:

Assume your actual balance and available balance are both $100, and you swipe your debit card at a merchant for $60. As a result, your available will be reduced by $60 so your available balance is only $40. Your actual balance is still $100. Before the merchant charge is sent to us for posting, a check that you wrote for $50 clears. Because you only have $40 available...your account will be overdrawn by $10, even though your actual balance was $100 before the check posted. When the $60 merchant charge is presented and posted to your account, you will not have enough money in your available balance because of the intervening check, and you will be charged a fee for that transaction as well.

If you permit someone else to use an EFT service, your Card or your access code, you are responsible for any transactions they authorize or conduct on any of your accounts. However, TELL US AT ONCE if you believe your card and/or any access code has been lost or stolen or if you believe someone has used your card or access code or otherwise accessed your accounts without your permission, or you believe that an electronic fund transfer has been made without your permission using information from your check. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You could lose all the money in your account.

You are not liable for an unauthorized MasterCard debit card transaction that was conducted at an ATM if you can demonstrate that you have exercised reasonable care in protecting your card or access code from loss or theft, if you have not reported two (2) or more incidents of unauthorized use in the past 12 months, if your account is in good standing. Otherwise, your liability for an unauthorized MasterCard debit card transaction that is not conducted at an ATM will be no more than $50.00.

For all other EFT transactions involving access devices, including transactions conducted at ATMs, your liability for unauthorized transactions are determined as follows. If you tell us within two (2) business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your card or access code, you can lose no more than $50.00 if someone used your card or access code without your permission. If you do NOT tell us within two (2) business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your card or access codes and we can prove that we could have stopped someone from using your card or access code without your permission, if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500.00.

Also, if your statement shows transfers that you did not make including those made by card, access code, or other means, TELL US AT ONCE. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed to you, you may not get back any money lost after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from making the transfers if you had told us in time. If a good reason (such as a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods.
